In 1587, ___ men, women, and children settled on _______________ under the leadership of ___________.

White's granddaughter, ________________, was the first European born in America.

Soon after they settled on Roanoke Island, White returned to _______________ to gather more supplies.

It took White nearly ___________ to return to Roanoke. When he arrived, the settlement was ___________. The only clues were the word CROATOAN carved onto the palisades and the letters CRO carved into a nearby tree.

White was certain these messages meant that the settlers were ___________.

____________________________. Stormy weather made it impossible to search for the settlers and White returned to England.

Despite several attempts, ___________, to return to America to find his family and the other settlers.
Joint stock companies financed colonies by having investors pay a share (portion) of the cost. Profits (and losses) were shared by all of the investors thus lessening the risk.

1. The settlement was on a ______.
2. The gentlemen refused to ______.
3. The ______ was really, really bad.
4. The Native Americans were ______.

Swamps are breeding grounds for mosquitoes and all of the diseases they carry. Plus, it's always a bad idea to go to the bathroom right next to where you get your drinking water.

“Houston, We have a Problem/s”:
1. The settlement was on a ______.
2. The gentlemen refused to ______.
3. The ______ was really, really bad.
4. The Native Americans were ______.

Only 38 of the 150 settlers survived the first winter.

“NO WORK, NO FOOD” ______ emerged as Jamestown’s leader and, among other things, declared that those who didn’t work, ______.

In ______, things were so bad, the colonists boarded a ship to leave only to be met by a ship with supplies and more colonists so they returned to Jamestown.
In 1612, John Rolfe and his wife, Pocahontas, experimented with growing ________ and developed Virginia's first ________ export.

*Growing ________ was very labor intensive, but also hugely ________.
*The Virginia Company offered ________ to people who settled in Jamestown.
*_________ were first used to work the fields and cure the tobacco, but in _______, the first ________ were brought to Jamestown.
*In March 1622, Native Americans attacked and killed _____ of the European settlers in Jamestown.

In 1619, the first legislature made up of ____________________ in North America was established at Jamestown.

In 1624, the debt-ridden Virginia Company's charter was _________. Virginia became a Royal colony under King James I.
Bacon's Rebellion

When:

In response, Virginia Governor ____________________ gathered an army to fight against Bacon and his men.

Bacon and his men attacked and destroyed ______________________.

______________________ soon after Bacon's death from dysentery. His co-conspirators were hung.

What Happened:

___________________ raised an unauthorized militia of indentured servants, slaves, and poor farmers to retaliate against a series of ______________________ on the Virginia frontier.

Despite what you might think, the rebellion had nothing to do with pigs. Instead it was about people being upset with the government of Virginia.

Theories:

Some scholars believe that Bacon had an __________ instead of simply being upset with Governor Berkeley's refusal to retaliate against the Native Americans.

Perhaps, he had a __________ against Berkeley or perhaps, he was __________ by some people who wanted Berkeley removed from power.

Significance:

First colonial rebellion against ______________________________.

White farmers and landholders were given more rights, but the ______________ _______ remained in power.

Laws making ______________ were passed.
He was a _______________ who convinced King Charles I to grant him 100 million acres for ___________________ to settle.

Maryland was settled as a PROPRIETARY COLONY like New York and Pennsylvania. This meant that the owner of the colony was the ruler, not the British king or queen.

* Baltimore _______ before he was able to do anything with the land. His son, __________, took over managing the colony.
* He offered ________________ to every married couple who settled in Maryland.
* ________________ took advantage of his offer and this Catholic haven became mostly ________________.
The eight of you really helped me keep my head during the English Civil War. How can I ever thank you?

Supporters of __________________________

8 PROPRIETORS:
* _______________ granted 8 supporters land in the Carolinas.
* With easy access to the trade in the ____________, people settled in the Carolinas to grow ______________________________.

Cash Crops are grown for the purpose of _______ rather than being grown for just the farmer to use.

* These labor intensive crops required a ________________________.

* By _______, African slaves outnumbered European settlers in the Carolinas ________.

A SPLIT:
* In 1729, Carolina became a ________ _______ was split into ____________.

Georgia was established as a [ ] between South Carolina and Spanish Florida.

It was established as a place for [ ] to go and serve their sentences.

However, Georgia [ ] became a debtor colony like General Oglethorpe had envisioned.

Economy of the Southern Colonies:

No more "mom and pop" farm for us, we want to sell our tobacco to the world!

* [ ] like tobacco, rice, indigo, and, later, cotton

* mostly [ ] and plantations

* not as [ ] as the New England and Middle Colonies